Volume 12 Issue 29 3rd/4th August 2019

18th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME- YEAR C

First Reading: Ecclesiastes
1:2, 2:21-23 – Lord, do not be angry if I speak.

Responsorial Psalm –

In every age, O Lord, you have been our refuge.

Second Reading: Colossians
3:1-5, 9-11 – Seek the things that are above, where Christ is.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia alleluia!

Happy the poor in spirit;
the kingdom of heaven is theirs!
Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 12:13-21 –
To whom will all this wealth of yours go?

BECOME RICH IN THE SIGHT OF GOD.

Today we reflect on the call we all have to love God by sharing what we have with others. The rich man in today's Gospel chose foolishly to hoard his possessions. If we are prepared to risk putting what we have at the service of others, we may find ourselves poor in material terms but rich in the eyes of God. A treasure awaits us in heaven, along with many blessings in this life.

WHAT IT MEANS TO LET GO

TO LET GO does not mean to stop caring, it means I cannot do it for someone else.

TO LET GO is not to cut myself off, it's the realisation I cannot control another.

TO LET GO is to not enable, but to allow learning from natural consequences.

TO LET GO is to admit powerlessness, which means the outcome is not in my hands.

TO LET GO is not to try to change or blame another, it's to make the most of myself.

TO LET GO is not to care for, but to care about.

TO LET GO is not to fix, but to be supportive.

TO LET GO is not to judge, but to allow another to be a human being.

TO LET GO is not to be in the middle arranging all the outcomes, but to allow others to affect their own destinies.

TO LET GO is not to be protective, it's to permit another to face reality.

TO LET GO is not to criticise anyone, but to try to become what I dream I can be.

TO LET GO is to fear less, and to love more.

This week's Gospel condemns greed not because greedy people go to hell but because greedy people construct their own hell on earth. Greed traps people in hell by keeping them from the best part of life, that which matters to God – sacrifice for others; service to the poor; relationships based on character, not appearance. You build a life – and find real happiness – by using your talents for others and putting their needs first.

Weekly Parables for Catholic Parishes

"Take care to guard against all greed, for though one may be rich, one's life does not consist of possessions." LUKE 12:15

The Gospel message today is contrary to our modern culture where advertising continually tries to convince us that our value lies in the things we possess. Jesus showed us that our true value lies in the way we live our lives. He challenges us to not hoard material possessions, but rather to live a grateful and generous lifestyle and become more "other-centered" and less "self-centered."

REJOICE AND BE GLAD - ON HOLINESS IN TODAY'S WORLD (GAUDETE ET EXSULTATE)

A new diocesan initiative, Theology for Renewing, seeks to fill a desire evident among many parishioners for a deeper grasp of theology, scripture and prayer. To this end, Dr Julie Trinidad, a Catholic Studies Lecturer at the Mawson Lakes Campus of the University of South Australia will be presenting "Rejoice and Be Glad" over three sessions, a short precis of which is shown below. In this short course we will explore Pope Francis' 'Rejoice and Be Glad' document to find out more about his contemporary vision of holiness and how it can challenge the way we live our lives. Pope Francis provides practical, everyday ideas for authentic and joyful living. We will reflect on Pope Francis' encouragement and advice about discerning our own unique and attainable paths to 'ordinary' holiness. Session Details Wednesdays 14th, 21st and 28th August from 6:30pm to 8:30pm at the Salisbury Parish Family Centre, 23 Commercial Rd, Salisbury, 5108. There will be "coffee, tea, cake and biscuits" from 6:30pm to 7:00pm followed by the presentation. Please let me know if you would like to attend, all are welcome! Darryl McManus (darryl@ddaajmcm.com.au 0488 275 300).
