ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER SUNDAY 4TH JULY 2021

CELEBRATING THE GIFTS OF ABORIGINAL AND TORRES STRAIT ISLANDER CATHOLICS

Every year, Catholics come together across Australia to acknowledge and celebrate the gifts of Australia's First peoples. This year is particularly important following the COVID 19 Pandemic and its impact on the ways in which we interacted and made contact with one another.

NATSICC VISION STATEMENT

The National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council promotes and celebrates the cultural identity of our Peoples across the nation by living and expressing, in all its endeavours, the spirituality of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island Catholic Peoples.

Through this expression and recognition of our cultural identity we will find our rightful place within the Catholic Church in Australia.

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island Sunday falls on the first Sunday in July and is a significant celebration on our Church's calendar. Whilst providing us with an opportunity to acknowledge our Aboriginal and Torres Strait Island brothers and sisters, the celebration also signifies that we are united as one in God's love and care.

As Catholics we realise the importance of being good stewards in caring for the beautiful world that God has created. As good stewards we cannot ignore the damage that has been done to our environment.

Because of the close relationship of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Peoples to the land or 'country' we can all learn from them to be better stewards of our environment and help repair the damage done and so, to Heal Country.

For further information visit www.natsicc.org.au

Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Sunday - Mass will be celebrated in St Francis Xavier's Cathedral at 11am. Mass will be live streamed and can be viewed at www.adelaide.catholic.org.au. Principal Celebrant: Fr Anthoni Adimai.

A leaving collection will be taken up today.

The National Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council

THEY WOULD NOT ACCEPT HIM.

The word of God is often proclaimed by those whom the world considers insignificant. The prophet Ezekiel enjoyed no particular status among the exiles in Babylon. St. Paul battled with human weakness throughout his life. Jesus came from lowly Nazareth. But through each of them the word of God was proclaimed with power. May prejudice never close our ears from hearing the truth.

First Reading: - A reading from the prophet Ezekiel -
The people are rebellious; they shall know there will be a prophet in their midst.

The spirit came into me and made me stand up, and I heard the Lord speaking to me. He said, 'Son of man, I am sending you up to the Israelites, to the rebels who have turned against me. Till now they and their ancestors have been in revolt against me. The sons are defiant and obstinate; I am sending you to them, to say, "The Lord says this." Whether they listen or not, this set of rebels shall know there is a prophet among them.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: - R. Our eyes are fixed on the Lord, pleading for his mercy.

To you have I lifted up my eyes,
you who dwell in the heavens:
my eyes, like the eyes of slaves
on the hand of their lords. R.

Like the eyes of a servant
on the hand of his mistress,
so our eyes are on the Lord our God
till he shows us his mercy. R.

Have mercy on us, Lord, have mercy.
We are filled with contempt.
Indeed all too full is our soul
with the scorn of the rich,
with the proud man's disdain. R.

Second Reading: - A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians -
I will glory in my infirmities so that the power of Christ may dwell in me.

In view of the extraordinary nature of these revelations, to stop me from getting too proud I was given a thorn in the flesh, an angel of Satan to beat me and stop me from getting too proud! About this thing, I have pleaded with the Lord three times for it to leave me, but he has said, 'My grace is enough for you: my power is at its best in weakness.' So I shall be very happy to make my weaknesses my special boast so that the power of Christ may stay over me, and that is why I am quite content with my weaknesses, and with insults, hardships, persecutions, and the agonies I go through for Christ's sake. For it is when I am weak that I am strong.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

The Spirit of the Lord is upon me;
he sent me to bring Good News to the poor.
Alleluia

Gospel: - A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark -
A prophet is despised only in his own country.

Jesus went to his home town and his disciples accompanied him. With the coming of the sabbath he began teaching in the synagogue and most of them were astonished when they heard him. They said, 'Where did the man get all this? What is this wisdom that has been granted him, and these miracles that are worked through him? This is the carpenter, surely, the son of Mary, the brother of James and Joset and Jude and Simon? His sisters, too, are they not here with us?' And they would not accept him. And Jesus said to them, 'A prophet is only despised in his own country among his own relations and in his own house'; and he could work no miracle there, though he cured a few sick people by laying his hands on them. He was amazed at their lack of faith.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOLY FATHER'S APPEAL

The amount of $340 was collected for the above appeal. Thank you to all parishioners who contributed.

The Universal Prayer
Sunday, 4th July, 2021
14th Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year B
National Aboriginals & Islanders Day Observance Committee Week
(NAIDOC)
National Aboriginal & Torres Strait Islander Catholic Council Sunday
(NATSICC)

We pray for Pope Francis and for all clergy. May the Catholic Church in Australia be attentive to her 130,000 Indigenous members and embrace them with pastoral care, promote their leadership in the Church and honour their rich heritage, culture and spirituality.

Loving God, hear us.

We pray that all Aboriginal and Torres Strait citizen are treated with respect, their vulnerable youth receive encouragement and the wisdom of their elders listened to.

Loving God, hear us.

We pray that this year's theme – Heal Country - is embraced by all in this continent. May we learn from our Indigenous Australians, their rich connection and knowledge of Country and work towards a more sustainable planet – our common home.

Loving God, hear us.

We pray for all in our parishes, communities, schools, families, and organisations who give witness, by word and action, to Jesus. May they not be discouraged when their message is despised or rejected, but keep themselves centred on Him.

Loving God, hear us.

We pray for each one of us as we struggle with our weaknesses and temptations. May we draw hope from St. Paul, who came to understand that God's grace was enough and that God's power is at its best in weakness.

Loving God, hear us.

We pray for all who have died recently, and for those whose anniversaries occur at this time, especially Joseph and Maria Nguyen, Anna and Maria Vo. May the over three million people who have died in this pandemic, too often alone and in fear, find in God the source of eternal peace and joy.

Loving God, hear us.
