St. Joseph has two feast days on the liturgical calendar. The first is March 19—Joseph, the Husband of Mary. The second is May 1—Joseph, the Worker.

"Saint Joseph is a man of great spirit. He is great in faith, not because he speaks his own words, but above all because he listens to the words of the Living God. He listens in silence. And his heart ceaselessly perseveres in the readiness to accept the Truth contained in the word of the Living God," Pope John Paul II had once said.

There is very little about the life of Joseph in Scripture but still, we know that he was the chaste husband of Mary, the foster father of Jesus, a carpenter and a man who was not wealthy. We also know that he came from the royal lineage of King David.

We can see from his actions in scripture that Joseph was a compassionate man, and obedient to the will of God. He also loved Mary and Jesus and wanted to protect and provide for them.

Since Joseph does not appear in Jesus' public life, at his death, or resurrection, many historians believe Joseph had probably died before Jesus entered public ministry.

Joseph is the patron of many things, including the universal Church, fathers, the dying and social justice.

FIFTH SUNDAY OF EASTER - YEAR B

'REMAIN IN ME.'

The branches of a vine will bear fruit only if they are attached to the vine. It is from the vine that they draw the life-giving nourishment they need. Likewise, we must remain attached to Jesus if we are to receive the life of God and produce the fruits of the Spirit in our world; love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, generosity, faithfulness, gentleness and self-control.

First Reading - A reading from the Acts of the Apostles - He explained how the Lord appeared to Saul and spoke to him on his journey.

When Saul got to Jerusalem he tried to join the disciples, but they were all afraid of him: they could not believe he was really a disciple. Barnabas, however, took charge of him, introduced him to the apostles, and explained how the Lord had appeared to Saul and spoken to him on his journey, and how he had preached boldly at Damascus in the name of Jesus. Saul now started to go round with them in Jerusalem, preaching fearlessly in the name of the Lord. But after he had spoken to the Hellenists, and argued with them, they became determined to kill him. When the brothers knew, they took him to Caesarea, and sent him off from there to Tarsus.

The churches throughout Judaea, Galilee and Samaria were now left in peace, building themselves up, living in the fear of the Lord, and filled with the consolation of the Holy Spirit.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm - R. I will praise you, Lord, in the assembly of your people.

My vows I will pay before those who fear him.
The poor shall eat and shall have their fill.
They shall praise the Lord, those who seek him.
May their hearts live for ever and ever! R.

All the earth shall remember and return to the Lord,
all families of the nations worship before him.
They shall worship him, all the mighty of the earth;
before him shall bow all who go down to the dust. R.

And my soul shall live for him, my children serve him.
They shall tell of the Lord to generations yet to come,
declare his faithfulness to peoples yet unborn:
'These things the Lord has done.' R.

Second Reading - A reading from the first letter of St John - His commandments are these: that we believe and that we love one another.

My children,
our love is not to be just words or mere talk,
but something real and active;
only by this can we be certain
that we are the children of the truth
and be able to quieten our conscience in his presence,
whatever accusations it may raise against us,
because God is greater than our conscience and he knows everything.
My dear people,
if we cannot be condemned by our own conscience,
we need not be afraid in God's presence,
and whatever we ask him,
we shall receive,
because we keep his commandments
and live the kind of life that he wants.

His commandments are these:
that we believe in the name of his Son Jesus Christ
and that we love one another as he told us to.
Whoever keeps his commandments
lives in God and God lives in him.
We know that he lives in us
by the Spirit that he has given us.
The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Live in me and let me live in you, says the Lord;
my branches bear much fruit.

Alleluia

GOSPEL: - A reading from the holy Gospel according to John - All who live in me, and I in them, bear much fruit.

Jesus said to his disciples:

'I am the true vine,
and my Father is the vinedresser.
Every branch in me that bears no fruit
he cuts away,
and every branch that does bear fruit he prunes
to make it bear even more.
You are pruned already,
by means of the word that I have spoken to you.
Make your home in me, as I make mine in you.
As a branch cannot bear fruit all by itself,
but must remain part of the vine,
neither can you unless you remain in me.
I am the vine,
you are the branches.
Whoever remains in me, with me in him,
bears fruit in plenty;
for cut off from me you can do nothing.
Anyone who does not remain in me
is like a branch that has been thrown away
- he withers;
these branches are collected and thrown on the fire,
and they are burnt.
If you remain in me
and my words remain in you,
you may ask what you will
and you shall get it.
It is to the glory of my Father that you should bear much fruit,
and then you will be my disciples.'
The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

MARY MACKILLOP PRECINCT – NEW MARY MACKILLOP WALK

The brand new Mary MacKillop Walk brings together a rich history and sense of place of the legacy of Mary and her pioneering involvement in this local area. At the starting point of this walk is the Mary MacKillop Museum,
an interactive and sensory showcase of Australia's first saint and the Josephite Sisters. Very fittingly, the circular walk finishes at the Museum's new High Street Café! Guided tours of the walk are available on the First Wednesday and First Sunday of every month at 10.30am. Meet at the Museum, 19 Phillips St, Kensington.
Bookings required (P: 8130 5910).

Sunday, 2nd May 2021
5th Sunday of Easter – Year B

We pray for Pope Francis and for the Church. May we overcome the difficulties of suspicion and mistrust, as seen between St. Paul and the Apostles and grow in respect and unity.

Gracious God, hear us.

We pray for Christians whose lives are threatened because of their belief in Jesus. May our prayers support them.

Gracious God, hear us.

We pray that our love will not be just words, but something real and alive.

Gracious God, hear us.

We pray for the people of India experiencing a new time of crisis in the pandemic. May nations generously rally to their aid.

Gracious God, hear us.

We pray for the approaching Diocesan Assembly and for the National Plenary Council. May the Church in Australia advance in holiness and service.

Gracious God, hear us.

We pray for all who have died recently, and for all whose anniversaries occur at this time, especially Lourdes Iglesias. We pray also, with gratitude, remembering the ministry of our first Bishop, Francis Murphy, whose anniversary was last week, and also for Archbishop Leonard Faulkner whose anniversary is next Wednesday.

Gracious God, hear us.
