PENTECOST SUNDAY
- YEAR B

THE TIME OF THE CHURCH

The event of Pentecost marks the beginning of the time of the Church. During this time Christ is with us in Spirit, defending and guiding us, and healing us, to the fullness of truth. We, as Church proclaim Christ's message in every language and witness to the presence of the Spirit by manifesting the Spirit's gifts, especially the gift of love.

First Reading - A reading from the Acts of the Apostles –
They were all filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak different languages.

When Pentecost day came round, the apostles had all met in one room, when suddenly they heard what sounded like a powerful wind from heaven, the noise of which filled the entire house in which they were sitting; and something appeared to them that seemed like tongues of fire; these separated and came to rest on the head of each of them. They were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and began to speak foreign languages as the Spirit gave them the gift of speech.

Now there were devout men living in Jerusalem from every nation under heaven, and at this sound they all assembled, each one bewildered to hear these men speaking his own language. They were amazed and astonished. 'Surely' they said 'all these men speaking are Galileans? How does it happen that each of us hears them in his own native language? Parthians, Medes and Elamites; people from Mesopotamia, Judaea and Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia, Phrygia and Pamphylia, Egypt and the parts of Libya round Cyrene; as well as visitors from Rome - Jews and proselytes alike - Cretans and Arabs; we hear them preaching in our own language about the marvels of God.'

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: R. - Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

Bless the Lord, my soul!
Lord God, how great you are,
How many are your works, O Lord!
The earth is full of your riches. R.

You take back your spirit, they die,
returning to the dust from which they came.
You send forth your spirit, they are created;
and you renew the face of the earth. R.

May the glory of the Lord last for ever!
May the Lord rejoice in his works!
May my thoughts be pleasing to him.
I find my joy in the Lord. R.

Second Reading: - A reading from the first letter of St. Paul to the Corinthians. –
In the one Spirit we were all baptised, making one body.

No one can say, 'Jesus is Lord' unless he is under the influence of the Holy Spirit.

There is a variety of gifts but always the same Spirit; there are all sorts of service to be done, but always the same Lord; working in all sorts of different ways in different people, it is the same God who is working in all of them. The particular way in which the Spirit is given to each person is for a good purpose.

Just as a human body, though it is made up of many parts, is a single unit because all these parts, though many, make one body, so it is with Christ. In the one Spirit we were all baptised, Jews as well as Greeks, slaves as well as citizens and one Spirit was given to us all to drink.

The word of the Lord

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful and kindle in them the fire of your love.

Alleluia!

Gospel: - A reading from the holy Gospel according to John –
As the Father sent me, so I send you. Receive the Holy Spirit.

In the evening of the first day of the week, the doors were closed in the room where the disciples were, for fear of the Jews. Jesus came and stood among them. He said to them, 'Peace be with you,' and showed them his hands and his side. The disciples were filled with joy when they saw the Lord, and he said to them again, 'Peace be with you.'

'As the Father sent me, so am I sending you.'

After saying this he breathed on them and said:

'Receive the Holy Spirit.

For those whose sins you forgive,
they are forgiven;
for those whose sins you retain,
they are retained.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to you Lord Jesus Christ.

NATIONAL SORRY DAY
WEDNESDAY 26TH MAY

Every 26th May in Australia, National Sorry Day reminds the colonist-descended people of the nation to remember the mistreatment of Aboriginal and Torres Strait Islander people. Why? During the 20th century, Indigenous children were forcibly removed from their families to be "assimilated" into white Australian culture. They are known as the "Stolen Generations." It took several Australian government administrations coming and going before an apology was officially offered to the Aborigines, but it finally was made official, and actions are still being undertaken to this day to repair the damage caused by tearing native families apart.

PEACE BE WITH YOU

Consider the deep peace of Christ. The shalom of God in Hebrew means more than freedom from anxiety. Shalom is the fullness of God's blessings, joy, and satisfaction, a life without need. To have the peace of Christ is to have it all. Nothing interrupts this abundance.

The Universal Prayer
Sunday 23rd May 2021
Solemnity of Pentecost

For Pope Francis serving the Church and the world in the Name of Jesus, that the Holy Spirit will guide, strengthen and console him.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

For Archbishop Patrick O'Regan, installed as our shepherd one year ago on Tuesday, that he will have a heart for love, a mind for prayer, and hands for service.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

For the City of Jerusalem and the Holy Land, that filled with the Holy Spirit on the first Pentecost Sunday, the Spirit of Truth will lead the Palestinian and Israeli people to seek peace together.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

For Christians persecuted for their faith, for those who are denied freedom of religion, and those who face harassment and ridicule, that the Holy Spirit keep them close to Jesus Christ.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

For a growing trust among the peoples of our world, that united in a common humanity and the search for truth, we will discover 'a new and universal solidarity' 'shaping the future of our planet.'

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.

For those who have died in the Israeli-Palestinian conflict, and those who have died from the Covid virus, remembering Josephite Sr Irene McCormack who was killed in Peru 30 years ago, that the Holy Spirit will bring them to a glorious resurrection in Jesus Christ.

Christ, hear us.

Christ, graciously hear us.
