Volume 12 Issue 39 19th/20th October 2019

29th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME- YEAR C

First Reading: Exodus 17:8-13 – As long as Moses kept his arms raised, Israel had the advantage.

Responsorial Psalm –
Our help is from the Lord, who made heaven and earth.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 3:14-4:2 – This is how the people of God become equipped and ready for every good work.

Gospel Acclamation:
Alleluia alleluia!
The word of God is living and active; it probes the thoughts and motives of our heart.
Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 18:1-8 - God will see those who cry to Him vindicated.

PRAY CONTINUALLY

The saving power of God flows into our world through human agents. In today's First Reading, the Israelites are saved from destruction by the power of God mediated through Moses, their leader. In the Gospel Jesus assures us that God will see justice done on earth provided we pray for it night and day, and keep knocking on the doors of the unjust. Let us pray and work constantly for justice, never losing heart.

THE DIVERSE MINISTRY OF POPE FRANCIS

Pope at Mass: Ideology should not replace faith.
Celebrating Holy Mass at the Casa Santa Marta in the Vatican, Pope Francis lamented Christians who judge everything "from the smallness of their hearts". Instead, he said, the Lord mercifully approaches all human situations because He came to save, not to condemn.

Pope calls for peace and respect for human rights in Ecuador.
Pope Francis says he is concerned by the social unrest in Ecuador and encourages those involved to "seek social peace, with particular attention towards the most vulnerable and with respect for human rights".

Pope at Canonization Mass: New saints 'kindly lights' in the gloom of the world.
Pope Francis presides over the canonizations of Cardinal John Henry Newman, Sister Marian Thresia, Sister Giuseppina Vannini, Sister Dulce Lopes Pontes, and Marguerite Bays. In his homily, the Pope reflects on the Gospel account of the lepers, and on the verbs "to cry out, to walk, to give thanks".

Lukewarm faith, the Pope said, leads so many to find excuses in uncertainty and fuels the tendency to procrastinate. It causes so many people to waste their lives and end up "in tatters because they have done nothing except nurture sentiments of peace and calm within themselves". But that, he said, "is the peace of graveyards". Pope Francis warned the faithful that when we become "spiritually lukewarm", we become half-Christians, without substance. Instead, he said, the Lord wants conversion, today.

PRAYER AND HANGIN' OUT

God surrounds us each moment of our lives. Jesus, in this week's Gospel, told His disciples to recognise that and rejoice. We all want close friends willing to hang out with us. Some of us have them. Some don't. But we all have a best friend in God, who is always there trying to shape us, help us, respond to us. Talk and listen to God throughout the day. In other words, just hang out together.

Weekly Parables for Catholic Parishes

"proclaim the word, be persistent whether it is convenient or inconvenient..." 2 TIMOTHY 4:2

It is not always convenient to be a good steward, especially when all the temptations of our busy and materialistic world get in the way. Now add our own pride and ego into the equation and living a stewardship lifestyle may be downright uncomfortable! Remember, God didn't call us to be comfortable. He called us to be faithful.

BAPTISM

We welcome into our Parish Community

CHRISTMAS HAMPERS

St Paul's of the Cross Parish, Glen Osmond/Parkside once again have very generously offered a number of Christmas Hampers to the Elizabeth Parish. If you think a Christmas Food Hamper, which contains Christmas Goodies along with some every day staples, will assist your family this Christmas - please let us know. You can leave your name, address and contact number at the Parish Office on 8255 1191, or let Fr Pat or Bernie know you would like one and then Bernie will be in touch at a later date with more details. A date for the pickup of hampers will be published later in the year, however, if collection from the Parish is an issue for you - we can arrange delivery.

WORLD MISSION DAY SUNDAY 20TH OCTOBER

Baptized and Sent: The Church of Christ on Mission in the World

This life is bestowed on us in baptism, which grants us the gift of faith in Jesus Christ, the conqueror of sin and death. Baptism gives us rebirth in God's own image and likeness, and makes us members of the Body of Christ, which is the Church. In this sense, baptism is truly necessary for salvation for it ensures that we are always and everywhere sons and daughters in the house of the Father, and never orphans, strangers or slaves. What in the Christian is a sacramental reality – whose fulfillment is found in the Eucharist – remains the vocation and destiny of every man and woman in search of conversion and salvation. For baptism fulfils the promise of the gift of God that makes everyone a son or daughter in the Son. We are children of our natural parents, but in baptism we receive the origin of all fatherhood and true motherhood: no one can have God for a Father who does not have the Church for a mother (cf. Saint Cyprian, De Cath. Eccl., 6).

His Holiness Francis for World Mission Day 2019

There will be a special collection today for World Mission Appeal.

INVITATION

Catholic Diocese of Adelaide
YOUNG FAMILIES ANNUAL RETREAT

Date: 2nd November 2019
Time: 10.00am – 3.00pm
Venue: Thebarton Community Centre,
Corner of South Road and Ashwin Parade, Thebarton
Cost: $20.00 per family, $5.00 per family concession
Bookings at: https://www.trybooking.com/BDUYP

A play produced by Hutt St Centre's older clients to mark the Centre's 65th anniversary will be performed at the Star Theatre, Hilton, on November 15. The drama group comprises Aged City Living clients (aged over 50) who have written the play 'Doors open wide for 65'. The theme of the play is the welcome, support and acceptance the clients received when they first walked through the doors of Hutt St Centre; or their excitement at walking through the doors to their own home for the first time. The performance will be followed by a piece from the Harmony Weavers, a women's wellbeing choir that aspires to heal, empower and build resilience and friendships in the community. Seats are limited so get in quickly and book LizJ@hutstcentre.org.au.

AWARDS FOR CATHOLIC NEWSPAPER

Adelaide's Catholic newspaper The Southern Cross has been recognised for its "quality" content and "innovative" distribution methods at the Australasian Catholic Press Association (ACPA) Awards announced in Bathurst last month.

LISTENING TO THE SPIRIT

Acclaimed singer Fr Rob Galea, a priest of the Diocese of Sandhurst, has created a new theme song and video clip for the country's largest gathering of young Catholics, the Australian Catholic Youth Festival, which will be held at Perth's Convention and Exhibition Centre from December 8 to 10. The song title is drawn from the theme for ACYF19 and Plenary Council 2020: Listen to what the Spirit is saying (Rev 2:7). The festival's theme song was written in collaboration with Gary and Bradley Pinto. More than 4500 young people, aged between 14 and 30, along with support staff, volunteers and 32 Australian bishops, will attend this year's festival. The ACYF19 song and associated resources are now live and available for download on the festival website.
