NORTHERN DEANERY SCHOOLS AND PARISHES MEETING NEXT WEEK

We are all very aware of the imperative challenges and opportunities for the Catholic Church in our Northern Area of Adelaide which is normally referred to as the "Northern Deanery."

Next week the Schools, Pastoral Care Chaplains, Pastoral Associates, Hospital Chaplains, Clergy and Parishes which make up this entity are meeting formally to explore these dynamics, challenges and opportunities which are available to the people of our areas.

The mission of the Church is essentially to manifest the reality of God's message of Love given to us all in Christ.

To live our individual lives as best we can and to express that reality through being the instruments of promulgating and living these values and, therefore, to the best of our ability, deliver the Christian Message is the imperative mission of the Church.

In the contemporary world we see this challenge as an imperative in achieving justice, peace and harmony for all people not just the Catholic Community.

We need not look any further than our television screens and our own personal experiences to be fully aware of the profound challenge of this mission for our country and our world.

It is envisioned that a co-ordinated, united and wholistic effort by those immersed in Pastoral Ministry in our area will be of the greatest assistance in working towards the best of possible outcomes for both individuals, families, associations and indeed the whole community of this area.

I would, therefore, request that you would be aware of this meeting and keep those engaged in this consultation in your thoughts and prayers in the coming week.

We cannot predict the outcome of this process, however, I am sure that into the future all of us would see it as being a very important initiative for our Parish and the whole Northern area into the future which will be challenging.

I will obviously keep you informed regarding the outcomes and implications for us all.

Fr. Pat

SERVING GOD THROUGH CIVIL SOCIETY

The kingdom of God is already present in our world. It is here that we practise the kingdom values of justice, honesty, love and compassion. It is here that we show our faith in action, work for love and persevere in hope. When we contribute to the well-being of civil society we are promoting the kingdom of God.

First Reading: Isaiah 45:1, 4-6 - I have taken the hand of Cyrus to subdue nations before his countenance.

Thus says the Lord to his anointed, to Cyrus, whom he has taken by his right hand
to subdue nations before him
and strip the loins of kings,
to force gateways before him
that their gates be closed no more:

It is for the sake of my servant Jacob,
of Israel my chosen one,
that I have called you by your name,
conferring a title though you do not know me.
I am the Lord, unrivalled;
there is no other God besides me.
Though you do not know me, I arm you that men may know from the rising to the setting of the sun that, apart from me, all is nothing.

The word of the Lord
Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm: Give the Lord glory and honour.

O sing a new song to the Lord,
sing to the Lord all the earth.
Tell among the nations his glory and his wonders among all the peoples. ®

The Lord is great and worthy of praise,
to be feared above all gods;
the gods of the heathens are naught.
It was the Lord who made the heavens ®

Give the Lord, you families of peoples,
give the Lord glory and power,
give the Lord the glory of his name.
Bring an offering and enter his courts. ®

Worship the Lord in his temple,
O earth, tremble before him.
Proclaim to the nations: 'God is king.'
He will judge the peoples in fairness. ®

Second Reading: St Paul to the Philippians – 1:1-5 – We are mindful of your faith, hope, and love.

From Paul, Silvanus and Timothy, to the Church in Thessalonika which is in God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ; wishing you grace and peace from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

We always mention you in our prayers and thank God for you all, and constantly remember before God our Father how you have shown your faith in action, worked for love and persevered through hope, in our Lord Jesus Christ.

We know, brothers, that God loves you and that you have been chosen, because when we brought the Good News to you, it came to you not only as words, but as power and as the Holy Spirit and as utter conviction.
The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!
Shine on the world like bright stars;
you are offering it the word of life.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Matthew 25:15-21 – Give to Caesar the things that belong to Caesar and to God the things that are God's.

The Pharisees went away to work out between them how to trap Jesus in what he said. And they sent their disciples to him, together with the Herodians, to say, 'Master, we know that you are an honest man and teach the way of God in an honest way, and that you are not afraid of anyone, because a man's rank means nothing to you. Tell us your opinion then. Is it permissible to pay taxes to Caesar or not?' But Jesus was aware of their malice and replied, 'You hypocrites! Why do you set this trap for me? Let me see the money you pay the tax with.' They handed him a denarius, and he replied, 'Whose head is this? Whose name?' 'Caesar's,' they replied. He then said to them, 'Very well, give back to Caesar what belongs to Caesar - and to God what belongs to God.'
The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

MASS FOR ALL SOULS

Monday, 2nd November, 2020 – 7.00 p.m. –
St. Thomas More Church

"Render therefore to Caesar the things that are Caesar's and to God the things that are God's."

- MATTHEW 22:21

Everything we are and everything we have belongs to God. We aren't "owners" of anything, we are merely "stewards" of the gifts God has given each of us. All God is asking is that we give back a portion of what He gave us. This is the essence of Stewardship. God should be our first priority in everything. All else comes second, especially our money.

It is not enough to accept the invitation to follow the Lord; one must be open to a journey of conversion, which changes the heart. The garment of mercy, which God offers us unceasingly, is the free gift of his love; it is grace. Pope Francis

GROWING THROUGH TRAUMA, ANXIETY AND FEAR – WITH SUSAN POLLARD, RSJ

Trauma can trigger feelings of disconnection from self, others and God... a sense of "a loss of soul." We will explore how anxiety and fear can bring individuals to another awareness of inner resources in spite of trauma. We will consider fear as having an object and anxiety as a kind of free-floating unease. Our goal is opening to the positive movement of these emotions for psychic development and for soul's ongoing emerging.

When? Tuesday, October 27, 2020, 7:00pm to 8:30pm

Where? Mary MacKillop Precinct, Bethany Centre, 4 High Street, Kensington. Cost? $25 (full) $20 (pensioners and unwaged).

Registration essential – by October 20: Email: infos@sosj.org.au or phone: 08 8130 5900.

Sunday, 18th October, 2020
29th Sunday in Ordinary Time
World Mission Sunday

We pray for Pope Francis who says that we are called to be a Church on the move. May the Holy Spirit push us and carry us into a world hungry for faith.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Pope Francis reminded us that, in this pandemic, we were caught off guard by an unexpected turbulent storm. We pray that we see this as an invitation to step out of ourselves for love of God and our neighbour.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

Pope Francis says that we are asked to be personally willing to be sent, because he himself is Love, love that is always “on mission”, always reaching out in order to give life. We pray for that grace to be given to Deacon Pasquale Lopresti as he prepares for his priestly ordination next Saturday.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray that God's mercy heals the sins of war, violence, lies and corruption around the world and restores love to all hearts. Pope Francis says – human life is born of the love of God, grows in love and tends towards love.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray to be filled with courage in our mission to help others in God's name as Pope Francis reminds of the poverty of those who die alone, the abandoned, those who have lost their jobs and income, the homeless and those who lack food.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for all Catholics as Pope Francis draws us together because the impossibility of gathering as a Church to celebrate the Eucharist has led us to share the experience of many Christian communities that cannot celebrate Mass every Sunday. May God look for those whom he can send forth into the world and to the nations to bear witness to his love.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for all who have died recently, especially Madge Carswell and for all whose anniversaries occur at this time, especially Sally Hickman, Arthur Waddell Button and Daniel Dalilis, Sr.. May missionary men and women, priests, deacons and religious, who have answered the call – here I am, send me’, share in the joy of heaven.

Lord, hear us.

Lord, hear our prayer.
