Volume 12 Issue 38 12th/13th October 2019

28th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME- YEAR C

First Reading: 2 Kings 5:14-17
– Naaman returned to Elisha, the prophet, and acknowledged the Lord.

Responsorial Psalm –

The Lord has revealed to the nations His saving power.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy 2:8-13 – If we hold firm we shall reign with Christ.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia alleluia!

For all things give thanks to God, because this is what He expects of you in Christ Jesus. Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 17:11-19

– It seems that no one has returned to give thanks to God except this foreigner.

WE COME TO GIVE THANKS.

After being cured by Jesus, nine lepers went immediately to show themselves to the temple priests in fulfilment of the law. Their primary concern was to satisfy legal requirements. Only one, a foreigner, thought first of thanking Jesus. Hopefully our primary purpose in coming to Sunday Mass is not to meet some legal requirement but to give thanks to God for the many blessings we have received in Christ and in the community.

Next Week's Readings

Mon	Rom 1:1-7 Luke 11:29-32
Tues	St Therese of Jesus Rom 1:16-25 Luke 11:37-41

HOW GOOD ARE THESE KIDS!

If there is one thing that I am continually and totally impressed by it is the quality of the young people in our Parish community.

This admiration was enhanced again last Sunday at the 10 am Mass.

As we were about to begin the entrance procession I became aware that the commentator had failed to arrive and that there was no one available to fulfil that role who was immediately identifiable.

It was then that I looked around for someone who would be confident and capable of stepping up to the task at incredibly short notice.

I noticed a young girl sitting quietly behind the assembled choir members.

Her name is Erika.

I asked her if she would help us out and assume the commentator's task.

Without hesitation, but with a little nervous smile, she immediately agreed to accept the role.

How good is that!

She did a splendid job, as I would have expected.

It again reinforced my admiration for the young people in our Community who are always ready and willing to step in and assist in so many ways as altar servers, musicians, catechists, members of the choir, helpers at Parish Celebrations, readers at Mass, leaders in Christmas and Easter liturgies, helpers in so many varied, rich and diverse ways.

Their parents must be very proud of them and their talents and so are we all.

Today, I think it is very appropriate for us to acknowledge this gift which we have among us and which we can sometimes take for granted.

Thanks Erika and all of you young people who are so dedicated and willing to enhance our Catholic Community in so many rich and diverse ways.

Fr. Pat.

YOU FIT IN WITH JESUS

The Samaritan leper was a double outcast. First, he was a leper. Leprosy in the Gospel isn't the disease that causes limbs to decay. It caused flaky or scaly skin. The Jewish religious laws told Jewish people to avoid contact with people who had it. The Samaritan was also outcast because of his ethnic background. Many Jews rejected Samaritans because they descended from Jews who married non-Jews. Notice how Jesus reacted to those outcasts. He stopped, noticed their pain, and healed them. That means they could now fit in. Also notice that the Samaritan was the only one who returned to thank Jesus. Jesus took note that only this "foreigner" seemed grateful. The point for us? First, if you feel like you don't fit in anywhere, call out to Jesus for help like the lepers in the Gospel. Second, Jesus points out that the Samaritan, the double outcast, shows more faith than anyone. That means we all need to respect and learn from the people we think don't fit in.

"Has none but this foreigner returned to give thanks to God?" LUKE 17:18

Most of us live "easy" lives. We have food, shelter and clothing. We go on holidays every year and own a car or two. Most of us take this all for granted. Did you ever notice that people with the least amount of possessions are usually the most grateful? Shouldn't this be the other way around? Take time every day and thank God for all He has given you.

BAPTISM

We welcome into our Parish Community

PIPER MAE TOONEN

ALL SOULS - COMMEMORATION OF THE FAITHFUL DEPARTED

All Souls Mass - Friday 1st November
7pm - St Ann's Church.

Due to Holy Souls falling on a Saturday this year we will celebrate on Friday 1st November.

During this Mass the names of those who have died during the past year will be commemorated.

All are welcome to attend.

CHRISTMAS HAMPERS

St Paul's of the Cross Parish, Glen Osmond/Parkside once again have very generously offered a number of Christmas Hampers to the Elizabeth Parish. If you think a Christmas Food Hamper, which contains Christmas Goodies along with some every day staples, will assist your family this Christmas - please let us know. You can leave your name, address and contact number at the Parish Office on 8255 1191, or let Fr Pat or Bernie know you would like one and then Bernie will be in touch at a later date with more details. A date for the pickup of hampers will be published later in the year, however, if collection from the Parish is an issue for you - we can arrange delivery.

CATHOLIC CHARITIES APPEAL 2019

Thanks to the generosity of parishioners and donations made for Raffle Prizes our annual Charities Morning Tea was a great success.

Special thanks to the Filipino Choir who buy tickets each year although they cannot attend the morning tea.

Our Guest Speaker this year was Sr Majella O'Sullivan from the Catholic Deaf Community. Majella was very entertaining and informative about the history and work she does within the deaf community. It was good to hear about the dogs trained to help the deaf, especially the different tactics they use to draw attention when there is a fire.

Majella finished by playing the guitar and inviting all present to sing "We Are Companions On The Journey".

Thanks to all who donated food and helped on the day.

$621 was raised for Catholic Charities.
