Volume 12 Issue 40 26th/27th October 2019

30th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME- YEAR C

First Reading: Ecclesiasticus
35:12-14, 16-19 – The prayer
of the humble will penetrate the heavens.

Responsorial Psalm –

The Lord hears the cry of the poor.

Second Reading: 2 Timothy
4:6-8, 16-18 – All that remains is the crown of righteousness reserved for me.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia alleluia!

God was in Christ, to reconcile
the world to Himself; and the Good News of reconciliation He has entrusted to us.

Alleluia!

Gospel: Luke 18:9-14

The publican returned to his home justified; the Pharisee did not.

THE PRAYER OF THE SINNER.

Last Sunday's Gospel told of the determined struggle of a good person, a widow, for justice.
Through this story Jesus teaches that God hears the persistent cries of the just. In today's Gospel it is a sinner who prays to God for mercy
and, wonderfully, God hears the sinner's humble prayer also. The only prayer to which God cannot respond is that of the self-righteous
who effectively says to God: 'I do not need you'.

LITURGICAL INVOLVEMENT

In the Bulletin front page on the 13th of October I expressed my admiration for those younger members of our Eucharistic Community who are so inspirational to us all with their confidence and skill in contributing to our Sunday Liturgy.

Since then I have been approached by several members of the Community who have expressed a desire to be involved in a variety of ways in contributing to this aspect of the Liturgical Life of the Parish.

I have asked the Parish Council to act as conduits for expressions of interest in regard to this matter.

I, therefore, would invite any of you who feel called to contribute to the liturgical dynamics of the community as commentators, readers (lectors), musicians or altar servers to approach a member of the Parish Pastoral Council to express your interest and discuss your availability and involvement with them.

In this way we may be able to ascertain the possibility of allowing those who are interested in this involvement to engage with us.

Being involved in some of these ministries may necessitate the process of "Police checking" and "Working with Children and Young People" clearances mandated by the Archdiocese.

The members of the Parish Council who may be able to assist you in the exploration of this involvement are Penny Madden, Ann Gomez, Eugenia Stopyra, Mila Iglesias, Bernadette Hedges, Michelle Robb, Jean Mohan, Daryl Vrede or Louie Trocio whose
photos are displayed in the Church foyers.

I would be disappointed to find that any of you who wish to embrace this activity, which is so vital to the life of our Community, was reluctant to engage out of shyness or feeling that you would not be adequate in some way.

Finally, I would personally like to thank those members of the Choir and others who assisted in raising funds through the Sausage Sizzle and Tomato sales last Sunday.....
Mila's report on these activities is contained inside this newsletter.

Fr. Pat.

We all have done things we're ashamed of. We all have sinful habits we'd like to break. And this week's Gospel reminds us that the only real remedy is gut-wrenching honesty with God, who is mercy, compassion, and healing. Weekly Parables for Catholic Parishes

"...for whoever exalts himself will be humbled, and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

LUKE 18:14

Pride and ego are the root cause of most of our sins. Thinking your time is so valuable, your talent is better than anyone else and your money gives you status is another way of making those things "gods" before God. Remember all those gifts were God-given. Instead we should be humbled by God's abundant generosity and our hearts should overflow with gratitude.

Feast Days of the Week

Mon Oct 28 Sts Simon and Jude, Apostles

The name of Simon occurs in all the passages of the Gospel and Acts where a list of the Apostles is given. To distinguish him from St Peter he is called the Zealot meaning that he had zeal for the Jewish Law which he practised before his call. Jude, known as Thaddaeus, was a brother of James, son of Alphaeus. Jude was the one who asked Jesus at the Last Supper why he would not manifest Himself to the whole world after His resurrection. He is the author of a short letter which forms part of the New Testament. Tradition has it that Simon and Jude preached in Persia where they were martyred.
