THIRTEEN DAYS IN OCTOBER

Many of us are old enough to remember 1962 and the dramatic events of October that year when a sense of foreboding permeated our world and society and we all held our breath for thirteen days.

It was all about Cuba.

The confrontation between the armed forces of the Soviet Union and those of the United States who faced off in a crisis which impacted our peace of mind and our sense of security caused a wave of fear bordering on panic throughout the world.

I must admit that in recent days I have experienced a tendency to revisit, to some extent, that feeling of insecurity and those emotions again.

Although not yet so dramatic and confronting as in 1962 we live again in dangerous times and the outcome of the posturing of nations in our own region of the world is causing discomfort and insecurity for many people.

We observe some very serious and unpredictable political manoeuvring and military rearming by the most powerful nations in our region and there is a perception and even fear that things could quite easily spiral out of control unless there is a degree of self-restraint and compromise by all parties involved.

The confrontation in the areas bordering the South China Sea and the rapid unprecedented move towards growth in Military spending and ramping up of capability of those nations in our region and a growing belligerence on the part of many must give us all some degree of insecurity towards the future.

It is in this type of situation that we are afraid that a lack of restraint and wisdom by any individual nation could impact on all of us in a catastrophic scenario.

Aware of this reality we pray for wisdom and the guidance of the Holy Spirit for the leaders of our own country and respective neighbour nations that there would be a quest for peace and calm and that the reality of this quest will be reciprocated throughout all the nations of South East Asia and the South Pacific area.

May Peace be with us all.

Fr. Pat.

18th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME
YEAR A

‘GIVE THEM SOMETHING TO EAT YOURSELVES.’

With the five loaves and two fish that Jesus had blessed the disciples fed a vast crowd. Our acts of service and love towards others may often seem small but, blessed by Jesus, they too can have a great impact. We need Jesus to bless our work, and Jesus needs us to feed the hungry and comfort the lonely of our world. Together, we can do great things.

First Reading: Isaiah 55:1-3 - Hasten and eat.

Thus says the Lord:

Oh, come to the water all you who are thirsty;
though you have no money, come!
Buy corn without money, and eat,
and, at no cost, wine and milk.
Why spend money on what is not bread,
your wages on what fails to satisfy?
Listen, listen to me and you will have good things to eat and rich food to enjoy.
Pay attention, come to me;
listen, and your soul will live.
With you I will make an everlasting covenant out of the favours promised to David.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God

Responsorial Psalm: The hand of the Lord feeds us,
He answers all our needs.

The Lord is kind and full of compassion,
slow to anger, abounding in love.
How good is the Lord to all,
compassionate to all His creations. ®

The eyes of all creatures look to you and you give them their food in due time.
You open wide your hand,
grant the desires of all who live. ®

The Lord is just in all His ways and loving in all His deeds.
He is close to all who call Him,
call on Him from their hearts. ®

Second Reading: St Paul to the Romans - Romans 8:35, 37-39 - No creature can separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ.

Nothing can come between us and the love of Christ, even if we are troubled or worried, or being persecuted, or lacking food or clothes, or being threatened or even attacked. These are the trials through which we triumph, by the power of Him who loved us.

For I am certain of this: neither death nor life, no angel, no prince, nothing that exists, nothing still to come, not any power, or height or depth, nor any created thing, can ever come between us and the love of God made visible in Christ Jesus our Lord.

The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!
No one lives on bread alone, but on every word that comes from the mouth of God.
Alleluia!

GOSPEL: Matthew 14:13-21 – They all ate and were satisfied.

When Jesus received the news of John the Baptist's death
He withdrew by boat to a lonely place where they could be by themselves. But the people heard of this and, leaving the towns, went after Him on foot. So as He stepped ashore He saw a large crowd; and He took pity on them and healed their sick.

"This is a lonely place, and the time has slipped by; so send the people away, and they can go to the villages to buy themselves some food." Jesus replied, "There is no need for them to go: give them something to eat yourselves." But they answered, "All we have with us is five loaves and two fish." "Bring them to me," He said. He gave orders that the people sit down on the grass; then He took the five loaves and the two fish, raised His eyes to heaven and said the blessing. And breaking the loaves He handed them to His disciples who gave them to the crowds. They all ate as much as they wanted, and they collected the scraps remaining, twelve baskets full. Those who ate numbered about five thousand men, to say nothing of women and children.

The Gospel of the Lord.
Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

NATIONAL VOCATIONS AWARENESS WEEK
2nd – 9th AUGUST

This is a week for the entire Church to consider, support and pray for those searching for their vocations in life. We might think about and pray for the young people in our community and in our families this week especially. In prayer, ask the Lord to enlighten them and give them the grace and courage to respond to His call. The Lord calls each of us to a particular vocation (marriage, consecrated life, priesthood or a single life of service). There will be a special collection taken up next weekend 8th/9th August to support Vocations to the Priesthood in the Archdiocese. of student priests for the Archdiocese.

"Jesus said to them, 'There is no need for them to go away; give them some food yourselves'." - MATTHEW 14:16

This is what Jesus said right before he fed the five thousand. How often do we really place our trust in Jesus when the situation looks grim? With Jesus, no gift is too small or insignificant when offered with love. But, we have to do our part. We should trust that Jesus will provide all that we need.
We need to believe that Jesus has a better plan in store for us.

The Universal Prayer
Sunday 2nd August 2020
Eighteenth Sunday in Ordinary Time

1. We pray for Pope Francis. May he hold the Church together in charity as in every place the prayer life and pastoral care of each community is reshaped because of the Covid 19 pandemic.
Lord, hear us.
Lord, hear our prayer.
2. We pray for the Australian National Vocations Week starting on Tuesday. May every Catholic pay attention and listen to God's word, so that whatever they do in life will be to God's glory and the care of others.
Lord, hear us.
Lord, hear our prayer.
3. We pray for the world. May during this Covid pandemic, nations and groups put down their weapons for 90 days and give peace a chance.
Lord, hear us.
Lord, hear our prayer.
4. We pray for those places and for those families where hunger has become an intensified issue due to poverty and unemployment. May the world and nations, Churches and neighbourhoods share their bread as did Jesus long ago.
Lord, hear us.
Lord, hear our prayer.
5. We pray for each one of us. That as we enter National Homelessness Week in Australia, National Missing Persons Week and Anxiety Disorders Week, we be sensitive to the complex and inter-related issues which bring much suffering to individuals and communities.
Lord, hear us.
Lord, hear our prayer
6. We pray for those who have died recently and for those whose anniversary occur at this time especially, Renato de Castro. May our dead sit at the heavenly banquet where they will never be hungry again, for they will live in the presence of Jesus, the Bread of Life.
Lord, hear us.
Lord, hear our prayer
