CATHOLIC ARCHDIOCESE OF ADELAIDE ARCHBISHOP OF ADELAIDE

8th June 2021

Dear sisters and brothers,

Re: Diocesan Assembly

Grace and peace, I hope this note finds your well.

I am writing to provide you with some important information regarding the forthcoming Diocesan Assembly. This information will assist you with the task of animating your community for engagement with the consultation process for the 2021 Diocesan Assembly.

Dates for Diocesan Assembly

1. The Diocesan Assembly will be held on the evening of Friday, 17th September 2021 and all day Saturday, 18th September 2021. It will be held at Cabra Dominican College, 225 Cross Road, Cumberland Park. Overnight accommodation and hospitality will be provided for regional attendees.
2. A concluding session will be held on the evening of Thursday, 23rd September 2021 at a venue to be advised with an online facility available for regional attendees.

Consultation Process

To prepare for the Assembly, Parishes, Schools and Communities are asked to engage their communities in the pre-Assembly consultation process. Individuals and groups are invited to reflect on and respond to the consultation questions:

- a) Think about the challenges and opportunities in your community.
- b) How can we as church best fulfil our mission to be the People of God in this place?
- c) What do you think are the most important things to discuss at the Diocesan Assembly

Responses may be made online at www.adelaidediocesanassembly.org/respond or via a reply paid postcard to be provided by the archdiocese.

The consultation period is now open and will close on Monday 16 August 2021.

Consultation launch week

3. On the weekend of Saturday, 26th June and Sunday, 27th June 2021. I am asking that each Parish play the Diocesan Assembly video at each Mass in place of the homily and allow Parish members time to respond to the consultation questions. The video, posters and the postcards along with further instructions will be provided in the coming weeks.

Diocesan Assembly Participant Nominations

4. Parishes, Schools, Communities, Agencies and Organisations will receive an invitation to nominate representative participants to the Diocesan Assembly. The invitation will include information specific to each Parish, School, Community or Group as to the number of nominees allotted as well as general criteria for selecting nominees and instructions for registration.

Diocesan Youth Assembly and Consultations

The Catholic Office for Youth and Young Adults (COYYA) and Council for Ministry for Young People are organising a series of Youth consultation sessions during June and July as well as a Diocesan Youth Assembly to be held on Saturday, 21st August 2021 at Nazareth Catholic College, Findon Campus, 176 Crittenden Road, Findon. The Youth consultations and Assembly will contribute to the overall Diocesan Assembly in September. More information about the Assembly can be found at www.cathoyouthadelaide.org.au. COYYA will contact you directly with further information.

The Diocesan Assembly is an important event for the life of our faith community, your assistance in the preparation for the assembly is essential to its success. I will be in ongoing communication with you as more information and resources become available.

Please direct any immediate questions and inquiries to Sarah Moffatt by email at smoffatt@adelaide.catholic.org.au or telephone 8210 8110.

13th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME – YEAR B

SHE FELL AT HIS FEET AND TOLD HIM THE WHOLE TRUTH

In today's Gospel, before raising to life the young daughter of a synagogue official, Jesus restores health and wholeness to an 'untouchable', a woman whose 'uncleanness' debars her from synagogue worship. She is remarkable as much for her courage as for her faith. Are there any people for whom we have no place in our parish community?

First Reading: - A reading from the book of Wisdom - It was the devil's envy that brought death into the world.

Death was not God's doing,
he takes no pleasure in the extinction of the living.
To be - for this he created all;
the world's created things have health in them,
in them no fatal poison can be found,
and Hades holds no power on earth;
for virtue is undying.
Yet God did make man imperishable,
he made him in the image of his own nature;
it was the devil's envy that brought death into the world,
as those who are his partners will discover.
The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: - R. I will praise you, Lord, for you have rescued me.

I will praise you, Lord, you have rescued me
and have not let my enemies rejoice over me.
O Lord, you have raised my soul from the dead, restored me to life from those who sink into the grave. R.

Sing psalms to the Lord, you who love him,
give thanks to his holy name.
His anger lasts but a moment: his favour through life.
At night there are tears, but joy comes with dawn. R.

The Lord listened and had pity.
The Lord came to my help.
For me you have changed my mourning into dancing,
O Lord my God, I will thank you for ever. R.

Second Reading - A reading from the second letter of St Paul to the Corinthians - Your abundance should supply their want.

You always have the most of everything - of faith, of eloquence, of understanding, of keenness for any cause, and the biggest share of our affection - so we expect you to put the most into this work of mercy too. Remember how generous the Lord Jesus was: he was rich, but he became poor for your sake, to make you rich out of his poverty. This does not mean that to give relief to others you ought to make things difficult for yourselves: it is a question of balancing what happens to be your surplus now against their present need, and one day they may have something to spare that will supply your own need. That is how we strike a balance: as scripture says: The man who gathered much had none too much, the man who gathered little did not go short.
The word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!
Our Saviour Jesus Christ has done away with death and brought us life through his gospel.
Alleluia!

Gospel: - A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark - Young girl, I say to you, arise.

When Jesus had crossed in the boat to the other side, a large crowd gathered round him and he stayed by the lakeside. Then one of the synagogue officials came up, Jairus by name, and seeing him, fell at his feet and pleaded with him earnestly, saying, 'My little daughter is desperately sick. Do come and lay your hands on her to make her better and save her life.' Jesus went with him and a large crowd followed him; they were pressing all round him.

Some people arrived from the house of the synagogue official to say, 'Your daughter is dead: why put the Master to any further trouble?' But Jesus had overheard this remark of theirs and he said to the official, 'Do not be afraid; only have faith.' And he allowed no one to go with him except Peter and James and John the brother of James. So they came to the official's house and Jesus noticed all the commotion, with people weeping and wailing unrestrainedly. He went in and said to them, 'Why all this commotion and crying? The child is not dead, but asleep.' But they laughed at him. So he turned them all out and, taking with him the child's father and mother and his own companions, he went into the place where the child lay. And taking the child by the hand he said to her, 'Talitha, kumi!' which means, 'little girl, I tell you to get up.' The little girl got up at once and began to walk about, for she was twelve years old. At this they were overcome with astonishment, and he ordered them strictly not to let anyone know about it, and told them to give her something to eat. The Gospel of the Lord. Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

HOLY FATHER'S APPEAL PETER PENCE - 2021

The Peter Pence Collection is traditionally taken up throughout the Catholic Parish around the world either on 29th June, the Solemnity of Saints Peter and Paul, or on the Sunday closest to the Solemnity. This Appeal is for the works of the Holy Father and helps him provide funds for emergency assistance to those in need in particular the victims of war, oppression and natural disasters. Thank you for your generosity.

The Universal Prayer
Sunday, 27th June, 2021
13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

We pray for Pope Francis, who will celebrate the Feast of St. Peter on Tuesday. May he continue to be a worthy successor to Peter, holding the Church together, in unity with truth and mercy. We pray also for the well-being of Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI, who will celebrate his 70th anniversary as a priest on the same day.

Merciful God, hear us.

We pray, with thanksgiving for those who laid the foundations of our Archdiocese – from the small Catholic community of 1836, the aboriginal people who came to faith in Jesus and through the waves of migrants and refugees who make up our story.

Merciful God, hear us.

We pray for Archbishop Patrick, for the clergy, religious and all Christ's faithful of the Archdiocese. May we embrace our mission to witness to Jesus in prayer, by action in charity and through words which are true and respectful.

Merciful God, hear us.

We pray, with hope, committed to forming a future which is shaped by faith in Jesus who is always generous in his love. May our Church be united and joyful, attentive to the needs of our times and inclusive of everyone, embracing especially the needy and discouraged.

Merciful God, hear us.

We pray for those with chronic illnesses, for sick children and their worried parents, and for those struggling with Covid 19. May all who care for them be the healing hands of Jesus, bringing peace and comfort.

Merciful God, hear us.

We pray for all who have died recently and for all whose anniversaries occur at this time. We pray also for all children who have died and for people who have died after long illnesses. May they be made rich in Christ's eternal life.

Merciful God, hear us.
