Hopefully these protocols will be modified very quickly.

In recent times we have all endured the reality of serious restrictions in our ability to gather as families and friends to celebrate significant events in our Community and to worship Almighty God in our traditional ways.

This has not only been extremely difficult for each of us as individuals but has been especially emotional for those who have experienced the reality of restrictions in the areas of funerals following the death of family members and friends and significant moments such as Weddings, First Communions and Baptisms.

It is, therefore, with gratitude that we are able announce a restricted return to those areas of life which we have been deprived of due to the pandemic protocols.

In the meantime we will attempt to keep you informed on the Parish Bulletin or on the Parish Website.

God Bless you all.

Fr. Pat.

THE MOST HOLY TRINITY – YEAR A A GOD OF TENDERNESS.

God did not wreak vengeance on the Israelites in the wilderness when they began to worship a golden calf. Rather, God came among them in tenderness and compassion, forgave their sin and restored the covenant. This God became incarnate in Jesus and dwells among us in the Spirit. As we marvel at the unconditional love of God we exclaim: Glory and praise forever!

First Reading: Exodus 34:4-6, 8-9 – The Lord God, ruler of all, merciful and loving.

With the two tablets of stone in his hands, Moses went up the mountain of Sinai in the early morning as the Lord had commanded him. And the Lord descended in the form of a cloud, and Moses stood with Him there. He called on the name of the Lord. The Lord passed before him and proclaimed, 'Lord, Lord, a God of tenderness and compassion, slow to anger, rich in kindness and faithfulness.' And Moses bowed down to the ground at once and worshipped. 'If I have indeed won your favour, Lord,' he said 'let my Lord come with us, I beg. True, they are a headstrong people, but forgive us our faults and our sins, and adopt us as your heritage.'

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: - Glory and praise for ever!

1. You are blest, Lord God of our fathers.®
Blest your glorious holy name. ®
2. You are blest in the temple of your glory. ®
You are blest on the throne of your kingdom. ®
3. You are blest who gaze into the depths. ®
You are blest in the firmament of heaven. ®

Second Reading: 1 Corinthians 13:11-13 -

The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Brothers, we wish you happiness; try to grow perfect; help one another. Be united; live in peace, and the God of love and peace will be with you.

Greet one another with the holy kiss. All the saints send you greetings.

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation:

Alleluia, alleluia!

Glory to the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit: to God who is, who was, and who is to come.

Alleluia!

GOSPEL John 3:16-18 - God sent His Son to save the world through Him.

Jesus said to Nicodemus,

'God loved the world so much that He gave His only Son, so that everyone who believes in Him may not be lost but may have eternal life.

For God sent His Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through Him the world might be saved.

No one who believes in Him will be condemned;

But whoever refuses to believe is condemned already, because he has refused to believe in the name of God's only Son.'

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

On a first reading the gospel text does not appear to be Trinitarian at all. Jesus' words to Nicodemus may shed light on his identity as God's Son, but nowhere in this brief passage is God identified as Father, nor is there any reference to the Spirit. Taken in isolation, these few verses simply suggest a special relationship between Jesus and God. And this is done indirectly – Jesus does not speak about himself in the first person. Once again the context provides some assistance. Earlier in his conversation with Nicodemus Jesus spoke about the need to be born of water and Spirit to enter the kingdom of heaven. The gospel writer John may well be assuming his readers are familiar with a baptismal practice using a Trinitarian formula. He may also be taking it for granted that when readers got to the passage chosen for today they won't have forgotten what was said in the earlier part of the dialogue. In any case the reading reveals something of the union between God and Son. They are entirely one in their loving action in and for the world. The text contains some memorable assertions: "God loved the world so much that he gave his only Son . . ." and "God sent his Son into the world not to condemn the world, but so that through him the world might be saved". These are words to be treasured.

SACRAMENT PROGRAM 2020

Dear Parents/Carers,

As we know our nation and the rest of the world is still battling this pandemic. What we are experiencing now is beyond our control.

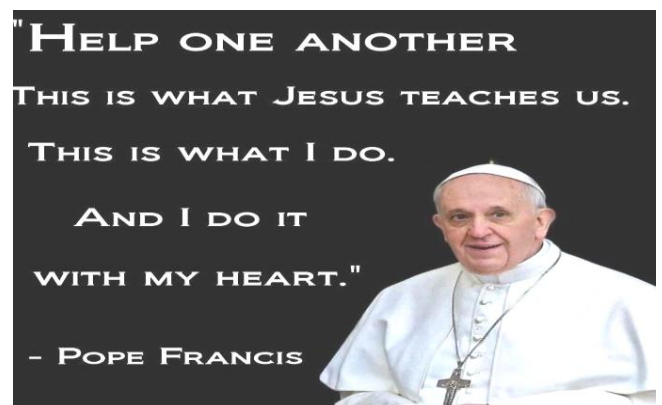

We are following the government's advice and as ordered from our newly installed Archbishop Patrick O'Regan, the Sacrament program (Reconciliation, Confirmation & Eucharist) for this year is cancelled.

The Elizabeth Catholic Parish Sacrament program team headed by Fr. Pat Woods will keep all of you informed when the program will re-commence.

We appreciate your support in this matter. Thank you.

Looking forward to seeing you in next year's Sacrament Program.

Edna Dumbrell, Sacrament Program Co-ordinator

"For God so loved the world that He gave His only Son..."
JOHN 3:16

Is your love conditional? Is there a price others must pay to receive your love and forgiveness? Are you generous with your time, skills, money and possessions? If you give someone something, do you expect something in return? Do you give your time freely or do you "fit it in" when it's convenient for you? God desires a personal relationship with us so much that He gave us His Son, unconditionally! Pray for a grateful and generous heart.

Saint Columba Day will be celebrated throughout the College on Tuesday 9 June. On this day, we take the time to reflect on the life of Saint Columba and the College motto, 'Unity in Faith.' As we move forward in this uncertain time, the sad truth is that as humans, we are innately uncomfortable with volatile, ambiguous or complex conditions. I would encourage you all to make the choice today to stay strong and push through these uncertain times with the right attitude. Stay focused, stay strong and look at what you can achieve, not what you cannot.

TRINITY SUNDAY

We pray for Pope Francis and the Christian Church. May the Church, in all of its diversity, be faithful to the worship of God, to the praise of God's holy name and to the works of charity.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray that all in the Church speak God's name with respect and never use the name of the Father, of Jesus or of the Holy Spirit in ways which are offensive or insulting.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray that we, in the name of God, help one another, be united and live in peace, so that we reflect the unity of our God, who is Father, Son and Holy Spirit.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for Christians enduring persecution, those who are the object of discrimination, or whose right to religious freedom is restricted by governments, may they be strengthened by their faith in God.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray, as we give thanks for the gift of autumn rains, for good rains in those places in South Australia and across the nation, which continue to experience a prolonged drought.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for those places which are affected by violent protests arising from racism, inequality between the rich and the poor, and dissatisfaction with government and law enforcement. May they have the opportunity to receive justice, respect and new opportunities.

Lord, hear our prayer.

We pray for all who have died recently, especially Bernie Wilkie and for those whose anniversaries occur at this time especially Robert Akeroyd and Elizabeth Gabriel. We pray also for all who have been baptised in the Name of the Trinity, along with all who have died in police custody in this land and around the world. May they enter God's heavenly home, opened for us by the death and resurrection of Jesus.

Lord, hear our prayer.
