HE GREW UP IN ELIZABETH.

Quite often when I celebrate the end of academic year liturgies with the students, staff and families of our local community I find myself referring to the successful academic achievements of past members of the Elizabeth area most of whom were the children of migrant parents and families.

This reality became more poignant for me in the past few weeks when I offered Requiem Mass at the funeral for a deceased past president of the AMA who was an incredibly successful medical specialist and a devout and committed Catholic layman.

He was not only highly intelligent and a devoted family man but he was deeply involved in the life of the church in many areas of liturgy and social issues.

He grew up in Elizabeth as an English migrant.

He is one of the reasons that I like to point out to the graduating students in our local schools the reality that many of the high achievers in Australia and a variety of countries and professions began their personal journey in our area.

I will always remember my first personal encounter with this man in the Hectorville parish.

It was one Wednesday afternoon when I had returned to the presbytery after working at the RAAF base at Edinburgh as a reserve chaplain and was still wearing my service uniform.

He remarked to me that he had until recently been wearing the same uniform having not long ago separated from the service as one of the doctors on the Base and that he had called in to pick up the music portfolio for the next Sunday masses where he was deeply involved in the liturgy in a variety of ways.

Over the years that followed we shared many stories and experiences on the Squash Court, Golf Course and over a few "lemonades."

The enigmatic reality in all of this was that a major consideration in his life was his work as a profoundly successful Medical Specialist, his dedication to the Church, Liturgical music, his family and beating me on the golf course and squash court.

Totally dedicated in all these areas of his life he never forgot his roots, his family, his talents, the Church and his relationship with God.

As a sideline he was one of the most highly regarded people in South Australia as a Medical Specialist.

Phil Harding was a migrant who grew up in Elizabeth.

THE MISSION OF THE TWELVE

Before sending out the Twelve on a missionary journey, Jesus talks to them in great detail about how they are to dress and behave while on the mission. He knows that actions speak louder than words and that people will listen to what the Twelve say only if they live and act in a manner that wins respect.

First Reading: - A reading from the prophet Amos - Go, prophesy to my people.

Amaziah, the priest of Bethel, said to Amos, 'Go away, seer; get back to the land of Judah; earn your bread there, do your prophesying there. We want no more prophesying in Bethel; this is the royal sanctuary, the national temple.' 'I was no prophet, neither did I belong to any of the brotherhoods of prophets.' Amos replied to Amaziah, 'I was a shepherd, and looked after sycamores: but it was the Lord who took me from herding the flock, and the Lord who said, "Go, prophesy to my people Israel."' "

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Responsorial Psalm: - R. Lord, show us your mercy and love, and grant us your salvation.

I will hear what the Lord God has to say,
a voice that speaks of peace,
peace for his people.

His help is near for those who fear him and his glory will dwell in our land. R.

Mercy and faithfulness have met;
justice and peace have embraced.
Faithfulness shall spring from the earth and justice look down from heaven. R.

The Lord will make us prosper
and our earth shall yield its fruit.
Justice shall march before him and peace shall follow his steps. R

Second Reading: - A reading from the letter of St Paul to the Ephesians - Before the world was made, he chose us in Christ.

Blessed be God the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all the spiritual blessings of heaven in Christ.

Before the world was made, he chose us, chose us in Christ, to be holy and spotless, and to live through love in his presence, determined that we should become his adopted sons, through Jesus Christ for his own kind purposes, to make us praise the glory of his grace, his free gift to us in the Beloved in whom, through his blood, we gain our freedom, the forgiveness of our sins.

Such is the richness of the grace which he has showered on us in all wisdom and insight. He has let us know the mystery of his purpose, the hidden plan he so kindly made in Christ from the beginning to act upon when the times had run their course to the end: that he would bring everything together under Christ, as head, everything in the heavens and everything on earth.

The word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel Acclamation

Alleluia, alleluia!

May the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ enlighten the eyes of our heart that we might see how great is the hope to which we are called.

Alleluia!

Gospel: - A reading from the holy Gospel according to Mark - He called the Twelve, and began to send them out.

Jesus summoned the Twelve and began to send them out in pairs giving them authority over the unclean spirits. And he instructed them to take nothing for the journey except a staff - no bread, no haversack, no coppers for their purses. They were to wear sandals, but, he added, 'Do not take a spare tunic.' And he said to them, 'If you enter a house anywhere, stay there until you leave the district. And if any place does not welcome you and people refuse to listen to you, as you walk away shake off the dust from under your feet as a sign to them.' So they set off to preach repentance; and they cast out many devils, and anointed many sick people with oil and cured them.

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise to you, Lord Jesus Christ.

"He instructed them to take nothing for the journey but a walking stick – no food, no sack, no money in their belts." MARK 6:8 .

Imagine taking nothing but a stick when you go on a trip. The Apostles must have really trusted in God's providential care. Think of all the material things "we can't live without" in today's world. We make our life's journey more difficult because of all the material baggage that we drag along. Putting God first in everything and putting our money and possessions second gives us freedom because we don't become "slaves" to wanting to acquire more things.

The Universal Prayer
Sunday, 11th July, 2021
15th Sunday in Ordinary Time – Year B

We pray for the good health of Pope Francis and for a time of rest after his recent surgery.

All Powerful God, hear us.

We pray for Archbishop Patrick, all priests, religious and Christ's faithful, as we prepare for the Diocesan Assembly with its theme – Our story, our mission, our future.

All Powerful God, hear us.

We pray for each other. On this anniversary of the Dedication of our Cathedral may we rejoice in God's spiritual blessings and, as God's children, receive all wisdom and insight.

All Powerful God, hear us.

We pray for all who are homeless during this winter. May they, in this Year of St. Joseph, find worthy and safe accommodation.

All Powerful God, hear us.

We pray for all who make their living at sea. On this Sea Sunday, we pray especially for them as they struggle with the effects of the pandemic and find themselves separated from their families.

All Powerful God, hear us.

We pray for all who have died recently, especially Gioan Tran and for those whose anniversaries occur at this time. We pray also for all who have died tragically at sea and we remember Bishop Murphy, who began the building of our Cathedral and Archbishop Faulkner who dedicated it.

All Powerful God, hear us.
